

Faruk Sabanovic

Faruk Sabanovic is a multimedia artist known for work in graphic design, animation, film, and theatre. Surviving war and growing up in a society distanced from the currents of the free world charged his work to promote human rights, social change, and intercultural dialogue.

He combines generative art, software and automation development, traditional and computer animation with live-action, installation, and theatre.

